2. The Company's objective is to become an internationally recognized real estate group, a leader in the industry, operating sustainably, enhancing shareholder value, and contributing to society.

Article 5. Scope of Business and Operations of the Company

The Company is permitted to conduct business activities in the business lines specified in this Charter that have been duly registered, for which any changes have been notified to the business registration authority, and which have been published on the National Enterprise Registration Portal. In the case of conditional business lines, the Company must satisfy all applicable business conditions in accordance with the Law on Investment and relevant specialized laws.

SECTION IV
CHARTER CAPITAL, SHARES, AND FOUNDING SHAREHOLDERS

Article 6. Charter Capital, Shares, and Founding Shareholders

1. The charter capital of the Company is VND 3,872,595,590,000 (three trillion eight hundred seventy-two billion five hundred ninety-five million five hundred ninety thousand Vietnamese Dong).

   The total charter capital of the Company is divided into 387,259,559 (three hundred eighty-seven million two hundred fifty-nine thousand five hundred fifty-nine) shares, each having a par value of VND 10,000 (Ten thousand Vietnamese Dong).

2. The Company may change its Charter Capital upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with applicable laws.

3. As of the date of adoption of this Charter, the shares of the Company comprise ordinary shares and preference shares (if any). The rights and obligations of shareholders holding each class of shares are specified in Articles 11 and 12 of this Charter.

4. The Company may issue other classes of preference shares upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and in accordance with applicable laws.

5. The names, addresses, number of shares, and other information of the founding shareholders in accordance with the Law on Enterprises are set out in Appendix 01 attached hereto and form an integral part of this Charter.

   As of the date of adoption of this Charter, all restrictions on ordinary shares held by the founding shareholders are removed.

   Ordinary shares must be offered for sale to existing shareholders in proportion to their respective ownership of ordinary shares in the Company, unless otherwise decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. Any shares not subscribed for shall be decided upon by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may allocate such shares to shareholders and other persons on terms not more favorable than those offered to existing shareholders, unless otherwise approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

6. The Company may repurchase shares it has issued in accordance with the methods prescribed in this Charter and applicable laws.

7. The Company may issue other types of securities upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors within their respective authorities as prescribed in this Charter and in accordance with applicable laws.

Article 7. Share Certificates

1. Shareholders of the Company shall be issued share certificates corresponding to the number and class of shares owned.
2. A share certificate is a type of security evidencing the lawful rights and interests of its holder in respect of a portion of the share capital of the issuing organization. A share certificate must contain all particulars as prescribed in Clause 1, Article 121 of the Law on Enterprises.
3. For non-deposited shares, within ten (10) working days from the date of submission of a complete application for transfer of share ownership in accordance with the Company's regulations, or within ten (10) working days from the date of full payment for subscribed shares in accordance with the Company's share issuance plan (or such other period as stipulated in the terms of issuance), the shareholder shall be issued a share certificate. The shareholder shall not be required to pay the Company any costs for printing the share certificate.
4. In case a non-deposited share certificate is lost, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, the shareholder shall be re-issued a share certificate upon request. Such request must include:

a. Information relating to the lost, damaged, or destroyed share certificate;

b. A commitment to assume responsibility for any disputes arising from the re-issuance of the new share certificate.

5. For deposited shares, the issuance of certificates of share ownership shall, in all cases, be carried out in accordance with the regulations of the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation.

Article 8. Other Securities Certificates

Bond certificates or other securities certificates issued by the Company shall bear the signature of the Legal Representative and the seal of the Company.

Article 9. Transfer of Shares

1. All shares may be freely transferred unless otherwise provided in this Charter and applicable laws. Shares listed/registered for trading on a Stock Exchange shall be transferred in accordance with the laws on securities and the securities market.
2. Shares which have not been fully paid for shall not be transferred and shall not be entitled to related rights and benefits, including the right to receive dividends, the right to receive shares issued to increase share capital from equity sources, the right to subscribe for newly issued shares, and other rights and benefits in accordance with applicable laws.

SECTION V

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE, AND CONTROL

Article 10. Organizational Structure, Governance, and Control

The organizational structure for management, governance, and control of the Company comprises:

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders.
2. The Board of Directors and the Audit Committee under the Board of Directors.
3. The General Director.

SECTION VI

SHAREHOLDERS AND THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 11. Rights of Shareholders

1. Ordinary shareholders shall have the following rights:

a. To attend and speak at meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and to exercise voting rights directly, through authorized representatives, or by other means as prescribed by the Company's Charter and applicable laws. Each ordinary share shall carry one vote;

b. To receive dividends at a rate as decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders;

c. To have pre-emptive rights to subscribe for new shares in proportion to their respective ownership of ordinary shares in the Company;

d. To freely transfer their shares to others, except in the cases prescribed in Clause 3, Article 120 and Clause 1, Article 127 of the Law on Enterprises and other relevant laws;

e. To examine, search, and extract information relating to names and contact addresses in the list of shareholders with voting rights; to request correction of inaccurate information;

f. To examine, search, extract, or copy the Company's Charter, minutes of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

g. Upon dissolution or bankruptcy of the Company, to receive a portion of the remaining assets in proportion to their shareholding;

h. To request the Company to repurchase shares in the cases prescribed in Article 132 of the Law on Enterprises;

i. To be treated equally. Each share of the same class shall confer equal rights, obligations, and interests on its holder. Where the Company has preference shares, the rights and obligations attached to such shares must be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and fully disclosed to shareholders;

j. To have access to periodic and extraordinary information disclosed by the Company in accordance with the law;

k. To have their lawful rights and interests protected; to request suspension or annulment of resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors in accordance with the Law on Enterprises;

l. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.

2. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding five percent (5%) or more of the total number of ordinary shares shall have the following rights:

a. To request the Board of Directors to convene a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with Clause 3, Article 115 and Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 3, Article 13 of this Charter;

b. To examine, search, and extract minutes, resolutions, and decisions of the Board of Directors, semi-annual and annual financial statements, contracts and transactions subject to approval by the Board of Directors, and other documents, except those relating to trade secrets and business secrets of the Company;

c. To request the Board of Directors to inspect specific matters relating to the management and operation of the Company when deemed necessary. Such request must be made in writing and include: full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification of individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or legal identification, and head office address of organizational shareholders; number of shares and time of share registration of each shareholder, total number of shares of the group, and ownership ratio; matters to be inspected and purpose of inspection. In this case, the Audit Committee shall directly conduct the inspection and report to the Board of Directors;

d. To propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such proposal must be made in writing and sent to the Company no later than ten (10) working days prior to the opening date. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, number of each type of shares held, supporting documents, signatures of the shareholder(s), and the proposed agenda item;

e. Other rights as prescribed by law and this Charter.

3. A shareholder or group of shareholders holding ten percent (10%) or more of the total number of ordinary shares shall have the right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors. Such nomination shall be conducted as follows:

a. Ordinary shareholders forming a group for the purpose of nomination must notify the Board of Directors of such grouping at least ten (10) working days prior to the opening date of the General Meeting of Shareholders or within such other period (if any) in accordance with the nomination regulations issued by the Board of Directors and notified to attending shareholders prior to the opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

b. Based on the number of members of the Board of Directors to be elected, shareholders or groups of shareholders specified in this Clause shall have the right to nominate one or more candidates as determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders. In the event that the number of nominated candidates is less than the number they are entitled to nominate, the remaining candidates shall be nominated by the Board of Directors and other shareholders.

Article 12. Obligations of Shareholders

Shareholders shall have the following obligations:

1. To fully and timely pay for the number of shares committed to subscribe.
2. Not to withdraw the contributed capital represented by ordinary shares from the Company in any form, except where such shares are repurchased by the Company or another person. In the event that a shareholder withdraws part or all of the contributed share capital in violation of this Clause, such shareholder and any related persons shall be jointly liable for the debts and other property obligations of the Company within the value of the shares withdrawn and for any damages incurred.
3. To comply with the Company's Charter and internal management regulations.
4. To comply with resolutions and decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.
5. To maintain confidentiality of information provided by the Company in accordance with the Company's Charter and applicable laws; to use such information only for the exercise and protection of their lawful rights and interests; and not to disclose, copy, or transfer such information to any other organization or individual.

a. Violations of the law;

b. Conducting business or other transactions for personal gain or for the benefit of other organizations or individuals;

c. Paying debts not yet due where there is a potential financial risk to the Company.

8. To provide accurate address information when registering to subscribe for shares.

9. To fulfill other obligations in accordance with applicable laws.

Article 13. General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders comprises all shareholders with voting rights and is the highest decision-making body of the Company. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall convene annually once a year within four (04) months from the end of the financial year. The Board of Directors may decide to extend the time for holding the annual General Meeting of Shareholders where necessary, but not exceeding six (06) months from the end of the financial year. In addition to the annual meeting, extraordinary meetings may be convened. The location of the meeting shall be the place where the chairperson attends the meeting and must be within the territory of Vietnam.

2. The Board of Directors shall convene the annual General Meeting of Shareholders and determine an appropriate venue. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall decide on matters as prescribed by law and the Company's Charter, particularly the approval of audited annual financial statements. In the event that the audit report on the Company's annual financial statements contains material exceptions, adverse opinions, or disclaimers, the Company must invite a representative of the approved auditing firm that conducted the audit to attend the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, and such representative shall be responsible for attending the meeting.

3. The Board of Directors must convene an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the following cases:

a. When deemed necessary for the interests of the Company;

b. When the number of remaining members of the Board of Directors is less than the minimum required by law;

c. Upon request of a shareholder or group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 115 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter. Such request must be made in writing and include: full name, contact address, nationality, and legal identification for individual shareholders; name, enterprise code or legal identification, and head office address for organizational shareholders; number of shares and time of share registration of each shareholder, total number of shares of the group, ownership ratio, and grounds and reasons for the request. Supporting documents and evidence of violations of the Board of Directors, the level of violation, or decisions exceeding authority must be attached. The requesting shareholder(s) shall be fully responsible before the law for the accuracy and truthfulness of the provided documents and evidence;

d. Upon request of the Audit Committee;

e. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

4. Convening an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

a. The Board of Directors must convene the meeting within thirty (30) days from the date the number of remaining Board members falls below the minimum as prescribed in Point b, Clause 3 of this Article, or from the date of receipt of a request as prescribed in Points c and d, Clause 3 of this Article;

b. If the Board of Directors fails to convene the meeting as prescribed, within the next thirty (30) days, the shareholder(s) specified in Point c, Clause 3 of this Article shall have the right to represent the Company in convening the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law on Enterprises. In such case, such shareholder(s) may request the business registration authority to supervise the procedures for convening, conducting the meeting, and issuing resolutions. All reasonable expenses incurred for convening and conducting the meeting shall be reimbursed by the Company, excluding expenses incurred by shareholders for attending the meeting such as accommodation and travel costs;

Trong trường hợp này, cổ đông hoặc nhóm cổ đông triệu tập họp Đại hội đồng cổ đông có quyền đề nghị cơ quan đăng ký kinh doanh giám sát trình tự, thủ tục triệu tập, tiến hành họp và ra quyết định của Đại hội đồng cổ đông. Tất cả chi phí hợp lý cho việc triệu tập và tiến hành họp Đại hội đồng cổ đông được công ty hoàn lại. Chi phí này không bao gồm những chi phí do cổ đông chi tiêu khi tham dự Đại hội đồng cổ đông, kể cả chi phí ăn ở và đi lại.

c. Procedures for organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders shall comply with Clause 5, Article 140 of the Law on Enterprises and Article 17 of this Charter.

5. The annual and extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders may be conducted in the form of in-person meetings, online meetings, or a combination thereof, including E-voting or other electronic forms, depending on the meeting and/or voting format as determined by the Board of Directors.

Depending on actual circumstances, the Board of Directors shall decide on the form and method of organizing the General Meeting of Shareholders and notify shareholders at least ten (10) days prior to the opening date or in the notice of invitation in accordance with Clause 3, Article 17 of this Charter. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to decide, approve, and promulgate, including but not limited to, regulations on online or hybrid meetings, E-voting procedures, guidelines, and other relevant regulations depending on each form and method of organization.

Article 14. Rights and Obligations of the General Meeting of Shareholders

r. When necessary, delegation or authorization to the Board of Directors to decide or approve certain matters within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

s. Consideration and decision on other matters in accordance with applicable laws and this Charter.

3. All resolutions and matters included in the meeting agenda must be discussed and voted on at the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 15. Authorization to Attend the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. A shareholder or the authorized representative of an organizational shareholder may attend the meeting in person or authorize one or more individuals or organizations to attend the meeting, or attend the meeting through one of the forms specified in Clause 3, Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises.

2. The authorization must be made in writing in accordance with civil law and must specify the name of the authorizing shareholder, the name of the authorized individual or organization, the number of shares authorized, the content and scope of authorization, the term of authorization, and the signatures of both parties.

   The authorized representative must submit the authorization document upon registration for attendance. In case of sub-authorization, the attendee must present the original authorization document of the shareholder or the authorized representative of an organizational shareholder (if not previously registered with the Company).

3. The voting ballots of an authorized representative shall remain valid within the scope of authorization even in the following cases, except where:

a. The authorizing person has died, has limited legal capacity, or has lost legal capacity;

b. The authorizing person has revoked the authorization;

c. The authorizing person has revoked the authority of the authorized representative.

   This provision shall not apply if the Company receives notice of any of the above events at least forty-eight (48) hours before the opening time of the meeting or before the reconvened meeting.

Article 16. Variation of Rights

1. Any change or cancellation of special rights attached to a class of preference shares shall be valid only if approved by shareholders representing at least 65% of the total voting rights of attending shareholders. Any resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders that adversely changes the rights and obligations of holders of preference shares shall be approved only if consented to by shareholders holding at least 75% of the total number of such preference shares attending the meeting, or by shareholders holding at least 75% of the total number of such preference shares in the case of written resolution.

2. A meeting of shareholders holding a class of preference shares to approve such changes shall be valid only if at least two (02) shareholders (or their authorized representatives) are present and hold at least one-third (1/3) of the par value of the issued shares of that class. If the quorum is not met, the meeting shall be reconvened within thirty (30) days, and the shareholders present (regardless of number and shareholding) shall constitute a valid quorum. At such meetings, shareholders may request secret ballots. Each share of the same class shall carry equal voting rights.

3. Procedures for such separate meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Articles 18, 19, and 20 of this Charter.
4. Unless otherwise provided in the issuance terms, the special rights attached to preference shares relating to profit or asset distribution shall not be altered by the issuance of additional shares of the same class.

Article 17. Convening, Agenda, and Notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Directors shall convene Annual and Extraordinary General Meetings of Shareholders. The Board of Directors shall convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders in the cases specified in Clause 3, Article 13 of this Charter.
2. The convener of the General Meeting of Shareholders must perform the following duties:

a. Prepare the list of shareholders eligible to attend and vote at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be prepared no more than ten (10) days prior to the date of sending the notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders. The Company must disclose information on the preparation of the list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least twenty (20) days before the record date;

d. Draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the expected contents of the meeting;

e. Determine the time and venue for holding the meeting;

f. Notify and send notices of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend;

g. Perform other tasks serving the meeting.

3. The notice of invitation to the General Meeting of Shareholders may be sent to all shareholders by postal service, electronic mail (email), text message, fax and/or other means of communication to ensure delivery to the registered contact address of the shareholders. In case the Company sends the notice of invitation by email, text message or fax, the email address or phone number shall be the one stored and provided by the Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation or registered by the shareholders with the Company. The notice of invitation shall be simultaneously published on the Company's website, the State Securities Commission, and the Stock Exchange where the Company's shares are listed or registered for trading. The convener must send the notice of invitation to all shareholders on the list of shareholders entitled to attend at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the opening date of the meeting (calculated from the date the notice is validly sent or dispatched). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and documents relating to matters to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to shareholders or posted on the Company's website. In case such documents are not enclosed with the notice, the notice must clearly indicate the link to access all meeting documents, including:

a. Agenda and documents used in the meeting;

b. List and detailed information of candidates in case of election of members of the Board of Directors;

c. Voting ballots;

d. Draft resolutions for each matter in the agenda.

4. A shareholder or group of shareholders as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter shall have the right to propose matters to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such proposal must be made in writing and sent to the Company no later than ten (10) working days prior to the opening date of the meeting. The proposal must clearly state the name of the shareholder, the number of shares of each class held, accompanied by supporting documents, signatures of the shareholder(s), and the proposed matters to be included in the agenda.

5. The convener has the right to reject proposals mentioned in Clause 4 of this Article in the following cases:

a. The proposal is not submitted in accordance with Clause 4 of this Article;

b. At the time of submission, the shareholder or group of shareholders does not hold at least five percent (5%) of the total ordinary shares as prescribed in Clause 2, Article 11 of this Charter;

c. The proposed matter does not fall within the decision-making authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

d. Other cases as prescribed by law and this Charter.

6. The convener must accept and include proposals specified in Clause 4 of this Article in the draft agenda and contents of the meeting, except for the cases specified in Clause 5; such proposals shall be officially included if approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 18. Conditions for Conducting the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of attending shareholders represents more than fifty percent (50%) of the total voting shares.

2. In case the first meeting does not meet the conditions prescribed in Clause 1 of this Article, a second notice of invitation must be sent within thirty (30) days or another period as decided by the Board of Directors from the intended date of the first meeting. The second meeting shall be conducted when the attending shareholders represent at least thirty-three percent (33%) of the total voting shares.

3. In case the second meeting does not meet the conditions prescribed in Clause 2 of this Article, a third notice of invitation must be sent within twenty (20) days or another period as decided by the Board of Directors from the intended date of the second meeting. The third meeting shall be conducted regardless of the total number of voting shares represented by attending shareholders.

Article 19. Procedures for Conducting Meetings and Voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Prior to the opening of the meeting, the Company must carry out shareholder registration procedures and continue registration until all shareholders entitled to attend have been registered in the following order:

a. Upon registration, the Company shall issue to each shareholder or authorized representative a voting card and/or ballot indicating the registration number, full name of the shareholder, full name of the authorized representative, number of voting rights, and other details as decided by the Board of Directors. Voting cards and/or ballots may be encoded for vote counting using computer software or other electronic methods. The General Meeting shall discuss and vote on each item in the agenda. Voting shall be conducted by approval, disapproval, or abstention. At the meeting, approval votes shall be collected first, followed by disapproval votes, and then the total votes shall be counted to determine the result. Voting and vote counting may be conducted using computer software, direct voting, on-site voting, online voting, E-voting or other electronic methods as decided by the Board of Directors. The vote counting results shall be announced by the Chairperson before the closing of the meeting. The General Meeting shall elect persons responsible for vote counting or supervision based on the Chairperson's proposal. The number of members of the vote counting committee, shall be decided by the General Meeting; otherwise, the Chairperson shall appoint them;

b. Shareholders or authorized representatives arriving after the opening of the meeting may still register and have the right to participate and vote immediately after registration. 2. The election of the Chairperson, secretary, and vote counting committee shall be conducted as follows:

a. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as Chairperson or authorize another member of the Board of Directors to act as Chairperson for meetings convened by the Board of Directors. If the Chairman is absent or temporarily unable to work, the remaining members shall elect one among them by majority vote. If no one is elected, the Head of the Audit Committee shall preside for the General Meeting to elect a Chairperson, and the person with the highest votes shall act as Chairperson;

b. Except for the case in point (a), the person signing the convening decision shall preside over the election of the Chairperson, and the person with the highest votes shall act as Chairperson;

c. The Chairperson shall appoint one or more persons as secretaries of the meeting.

d. The General Meeting shall elect one or more persons to the vote counting committee as proposed by the Chairperson; failing which, the Chairperson shall appoint them.

3. The agenda and contents of the meeting must be approved at the opening session. The agenda must clearly and specifically allocate time for each item.

4. The Chairperson has the right to implement necessary and reasonable measures to conduct the meeting in an orderly manner, in accordance with the approved agenda, and reflecting the will of the majority, including:

a. Arranging seating to ensure security, safety, and health conditions;

b. Ensuring safety for all attendees;

c. Facilitating shareholders to attend or continue attending the meeting. The convener has full authority to change such measures and apply necessary actions, including issuing entry passes or other selection methods.

5. The General Meeting shall discuss and vote on each agenda item. Voting shall be conducted by approval, disapproval, or abstention. Voting and vote counting may be conducted by software, direct voting, on-site voting, online voting, E-voting or other methods as decided by the Board of Directors. Results shall be announced by the Chairperson before closing.

6. Shareholders or authorized representatives arriving after the meeting has commenced may still register and vote immediately after registration; previously adopted resolutions remain valid.

7. The convener or Chairperson has the right to:

a. Require attendees to undergo lawful and reasonable security or health checks;
b. Ensure safety at the meeting venue;
c. Request competent authorities to maintain order and remove persons who violate rules, disrupt proceedings, or fail to comply with security or health requirements.

8. The Chairperson may adjourn a duly convened meeting for no more than three (03) working days from the scheduled opening date and may only adjourn or change the venue in the following cases:

a. The venue does not have sufficient seating capacity;
b. The communication facilities do not ensure participation, discussion, and voting;
c. Attendees disrupt order or risk preventing a fair and lawful meeting.

9. If the Chairperson adjourns or suspends the meeting contrary to Clause 8, the General Meeting shall elect another Chairperson to continue the meeting, and all resolutions adopted shall remain valid.
10. Where the Company applies modern technology to organize online General Meetings as prescribed in Clause 5, Article 13 of this Charter, it must ensure that shareholders can attend and vote via E-voting or other electronic means in accordance with this Charter, Article 144 of the Law on Enterprises, and Clause 3, Article 273 of Decree No. 155/2020/ND-CP and its amendments.

Article 20. Conditions for Passing Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Resolutions on the following matters shall be passed if approved by shareholders representing at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the total voting shares of all shareholders attending and voting at the meeting, except as provided in Clauses 3, 4 and 6, Article 148 of the Law on Enterprises and Clause 1, Article 16; Clause 2, Article 20; and Clause 8, Article 21 of this Charter:

o. Propose restructuring, dissolution, or bankruptcy of the Company;

p. Issue internal regulations of the Board of Directors and corporate governance regulations after approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders; issue regulations of the Audit Committee, information disclosure regulations, and other internal regulations under its authority;

q. Issue regulations for organizing online or hybrid General Meetings of Shareholders, E-voting regulations, guidance documents, and other related regulations depending on the form of meeting.

r. Decide on issuance of non-convertible bonds, bond issuance plans, total bond value, and timing of issuance;

s. Decide on providing capital to subsidiaries, affiliates, and related companies in the form of loans to support business strategy, including real estate development projects, unless prohibited by law;

t. Decide on purchase and selling prices of raw materials, equipment, products, and services, except where regulated by the Government;

u. Decide on borrowing (including lending), mortgages, guarantees, and indemnities of the Company, unless delegated or authorized to the Chairman of the Board of Directors in accordance with the Board's operating principles or other decisions of the Board;

v. Decide on purchase or sale of shares or capital contributions in other companies in Vietnam or abroad;

w. Decide on valuation of non-cash contributed assets relating to issuance of shares or bonds, including gold, land use rights, intellectual property rights, technology, and technical know-how;

x. Other business matters or transactions deemed necessary for approval within its authority;

y. Other rights and obligations in accordance with this Charter, applicable laws, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

3. The Board of Directors shall report its performance results to the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the Law on Enterprises, the Securities Law, and this Charter.

4. Unless otherwise provided by law or this Charter, the Board of Directors may authorize subordinates and management officers to act on behalf of the Company.

5. The Company is entitled to pay remuneration and bonuses to members of the Board of Directors based on business performance and effectiveness.

6. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to remuneration and bonuses. Remuneration is calculated based on necessary working days to complete duties and daily remuneration rates. The Board of Directors determines remuneration for each member based on consensus. Total remuneration and bonuses of the Board of Directors are decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

7. Remuneration of each member of the Board of Directors is included in the Company's operating expenses in accordance with corporate income tax laws, separately recorded in annual financial statements, and reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders.
8. Members of the Board of Directors holding executive positions or participating in Board committees or performing tasks beyond normal duties may receive additional remuneration in the form of lump-sum payment per assignment, salary, commission, profit percentage, or other forms as decided by the Board of Directors.
9. Members of the Board of Directors are entitled to reimbursement of travel, accommodation, meals, and other reasonable expenses incurred while performing their duties, including attendance at General Meetings of Shareholders, Board meetings, or Board committees.
10. Members of the Board of Directors may be insured for liability by the Company upon approval of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Such insurance shall not cover liabilities arising from violations of law or the Company's Charter.

Article 27. Chairman of the Board of Directors

1. The Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected, dismissed, and removed by the Board of Directors from among its members.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall not concurrently hold the position of General Director.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall have the following rights and obligations:

a. To formulate the programs and operational plans of the Board of Directors;

b. To prepare the agenda, contents, and materials for meetings; to convene, preside over, and chair meetings of the Board of Directors;

c. To organize the adoption of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;

d. To supervise the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;

e. To chair the General Meeting of Shareholders;

f. To exercise rights and perform obligations assigned and/or authorized by the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors;

g. Other rights and obligations as prescribed by the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, the Company's Charter, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders/Board of Directors, and other internal regulations of the Company.

4. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors submits a resignation letter or is dismissed or removed, the Board of Directors shall elect a replacement within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of the resignation letter or from the date the Board of Directors issues a resolution on dismissal or removal.
5. In case the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or unable to perform his/her duties, he/she shall authorize in writing one of the Vice Chairmen of the Board of Directors or another member to perform the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Directors. In case no authorized person exists, or the Chairman of the Board of Directors dies, goes missing, is temporarily detained, is serving a prison sentence, is subject to mandatory rehabilitation or education measures, absconds from residence, is restricted or loses civil capacity, has difficulties in cognition and behavior control, or is prohibited by a court from holding certain positions or practicing certain professions, one of the Vice Chairmen of the Board of Directors as assigned by the Board of Directors shall act as Chairman of the Board of Directors until a new decision is issued by the Board of Directors; or if no Vice Chairman exists, the remaining members shall elect one member to act as Chairman of the Board of Directors by majority vote until a new decision is issued by the Board of Directors.

Article 28. Meetings of the Board of Directors

1) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected at the first meeting of the Board of Directors within seven (07) working days from the completion of the election of that Board of Directors. This meeting shall be convened and chaired by the member with the highest number of votes or highest voting ratio. In case more than one member has the highest and equal number of votes or voting ratio, members shall vote by majority rule to select one person among them to convene the meeting of the Board of Directors.
2) The Board of Directors shall meet at least once every quarter and may hold extraordinary meetings.
3) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting of the Board of Directors in the following cases:

a. At the request of the Audit Committee or an independent member of the Board of Directors;
b. At the request of the General Director or at least five (05) other managers;
c. At the request of at least two (02) members of the Board of Directors;
d. Other cases deemed necessary by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4) The request under Clause 3 of this Article must be made in writing, clearly stating the purpose, issues to be discussed, and matters within the authority of the Board of Directors.
5) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene a meeting within seven (07) working days from the date of receipt of the request specified in Clause 3 of this Article. If the Chairman fails to convene the meeting as requested, he/she shall be liable for any damage caused to the Company; the requesting party shall have the right to replace the Chairman of the Board of Directors to convene the meeting.
6) The Chairman of the Board of Directors or the convener of the meeting shall send the meeting invitation at least three (03) working days prior to the meeting date, or a shorter period as decided by the Chairman when necessary. The invitation must specify the time, venue, agenda, and issues for discussion and decision. It must be accompanied by meeting documents and voting ballots.

   The invitation may be sent by invitation letter, telephone, fax, email, message, electronic means, or other methods decided by the Chairman, provided that it reaches the registered contact address of each member.
7) Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be conducted at the Company's registered office or other locations in Vietnam or abroad as decided by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
8) A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be conducted when at least three-quarters (3/4) of the total members attend. If the first meeting does not meet the attendance quorum, a second meeting shall be convened within seven (07) days from the intended date of the first meeting, or a shorter period as decided by the Chairman. In such case, the meeting may proceed if more than one-half (1/2) of the members attend.

The minimum attendance quorum shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

9) A member of the Board of Directors shall be deemed present and voting in the following cases:

a. Direct attendance and voting at the meeting;

b. Authorization of another person to attend and vote in accordance with Clause 11 of this Article;

c. Participation and voting via online conference, E-voting, or other electronic forms as decided by the Chairman;

d. Submission of voting ballots via mail, fax, email, or message;

e. Submission of voting ballots via other means as decided by the Chairman.

10) In case of voting by mail, the ballot must be sealed and delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors no later than one (01) hour before the opening of the meeting. The ballot shall only be opened in the presence of all attendees.

11) Members must fully attend meetings of the Board of Directors. A member may authorize another person to attend and vote if approved by the majority of Board members.

12) A resolution or decision of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by a majority of attending members (more than fifty percent (50%)); in case of a tie, the final decision shall follow the opinion of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person authorized by the Chairman to vote.

13) When necessary, the Chairman of the Board of Directors may decide to collect written opinions of voting members of the Board of Directors according to the following procedures:

a) Send a written opinion collection notice together with relevant documents related to the adoption of the Resolution to the members of the Board of Directors; and

b) The members of the Board of Directors vote in accordance with the requirements of the Chairman of the Board of Directors stated in the written opinion collection notice;

c) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall appoint a vote-counting committee, with the Chairman of the Board of Directors acting as the Head of the committee, to examine the vote-counting results;

d) Based on the vote-counting results, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, on behalf of the Board of Directors, shall sign and issue the Resolution of the Board of Directors on the matters approved by the members of the Board of Directors.

A written Resolution shall be adopted on the basis of approval by the majority of voting members of the Board of Directors. Such Resolution shall be valid and shall have the same legal validity and effect as a Resolution adopted by members of the Board of Directors at a meeting duly convened and organized in accordance with normal practice.

14) The Board of Directors may establish sub-committees under it to be in charge of development policy, personnel, remuneration, internal audit, risk management, or other sub-committees as deemed necessary by the Board of Directors. The number of members of sub-committees, appointment of Sub-committee Chairpersons and other personnel shall be decided by the Board of Directors. The operation of sub-committees must comply with regulations of the Board of Directors. Resolutions of sub-committees shall only be valid when approved by a majority of members attending and voting at the sub-committee meeting.

15) The implementation of decisions of the Board of Directors or of sub-committees under the Board of Directors must comply with applicable laws and the provisions of the Company's Charter and Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance of the Company.

16) Resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors adopted by 100% of its members (regardless of whether attending in person, via conference call or other communication forms, written opinion collection, or authorization) shall be valid and effective even if the procedures for convening, meeting agenda content, and meeting procedures and adoption of such resolutions violate the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

Article 29. The Audit Committee

1. The Company shall have an Audit Committee under the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee shall consist of at least two (02) members. The Chairperson of the Audit Committee must be an independent member of the Board of Directors. Other members of the Audit Committee must be non-executive members of the Board of Directors.
2. The Audit Committee must meet at least two (02) times per year. The Audit Committee shall adopt decisions by voting at meetings, by written opinion collection, or by other forms in accordance with its operating regulations issued by the Board of Directors. Each member of the Audit Committee shall have one (01) vote. A decision of the Audit Committee shall be adopted if approved by a majority of attending members (more than fifty percent (50%)); in case of a tie, the final decision shall belong to the side with the opinion of the Chairperson of the Audit Committee. Minutes of Audit Committee meetings must be prepared in detailed and clear form. The minute taker and attending members of the Audit Committee must sign the meeting minutes. All minutes of Audit Committee meetings must be fully retained.
3. The Audit Committee shall have the following rights and obligations:

a. Supervise the integrity of the Company's financial statements and official disclosures relating to the Company's financial results;

b. Have the right to access documents relating to the Company's operations, and to exchange with other members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, the Chief Accountant, and other managers to collect information for the activities of the Audit Committee;

c. Review the internal control system and risk management. Develop and submit to the Board of Directors policies for risk identification and management; propose to the Board of Directors solutions for handling risks arising in the Company's operations;

d. Review transactions with related persons under the approval authority of the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders and make recommendations on transactions requiring approval of the Board of Directors or the General Meeting of Shareholders;

e. Supervise the Company's internal audit function;

f. Recommend the independent auditing firm, audit fee level, and related terms in the audit contract for the Board of Directors' approval prior to submission to the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders;

g. Monitor and evaluate the independence and objectivity of the auditing firm and the effectiveness of the audit process, especially in cases where the Company uses non-audit services from the auditor. Have the right to request representatives of the approved audit organization to attend and respond to issues relating to audited financial statements at Audit Committee meetings;

h. Use external legal, accounting, or other advisory services when necessary;

i. Prepare written reports to the Board of Directors upon detecting that members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other managers fail to fully perform their responsibilities in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter;

j. Develop the Operating Regulations of the Audit Committee and submit them to the Board of Directors for approval;

k. Supervise to ensure that the Company complies with legal regulations, requirements of regulatory authorities, and other internal regulations of the Company;

l. Other rights and obligations as prescribed in the Operating Regulations of the Audit Committee, the Internal Regulations on Corporate Governance, and other internal regulations of the Company.

4. Independent members of the Board of Directors in the Audit Committee are responsible for reporting at the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The report content must comply with the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, and the Company's Charter, and must include the following:

a. Remuneration, operating expenses, and other benefits of the Audit Committee and each member of the Audit Committee in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter;

b. Summary of Audit Committee meetings and conclusions and recommendations of the Audit Committee;

c. Results of supervision of financial statements, operational situation, and financial condition of the Company;

d. Assessment report on transactions between the Company, subsidiaries, and other companies controlled by the Company with more than 50% charter capital, and members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, other executives, and related persons; and transactions between the Company and companies where members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, or other executives are founders or managers within the last three (03) years prior to the transaction date;

e. Results of evaluation of the Company's internal control system and risk management system;

f. Results of supervision of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other executives;

g. Results of evaluation of coordination between the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors, the General Director, and shareholders;

5. The Board of Directors shall decide on the organizational structure, standards, and personnel of Audit Committee members, appoint the Chairperson of the Audit Committee, and decide on functions, duties, powers, organizational and operational regulations, and other matters of the Audit Committee in accordance with the Law on Enterprises, the Law on Securities, and the Company's Charter.

Article 30. Corporate Governance Officer

1. The Board of Directors shall appoint at least one (01) person as the Corporate Governance Officer to support the Company's governance activities to be conducted effectively. The term of office of the Corporate Governance Officer shall be decided by the Board of Directors, but shall not exceed five (05) years. The Corporate Governance Officer may concurrently act as the Company Secretary as decided by the Board of Directors.

2. The Corporate Governance Officer must meet the following criteria:

a. Have knowledge of law;

b. Must not concurrently work for an approved audit organization currently auditing the Company's financial statements;

c. Other criteria as prescribed by law, this Charter, and decisions of the Board of Directors.

3. The Corporate Governance Officer shall have the following rights and obligations:

a. Advise the Board of Directors in organizing meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with regulations and matters relating to the Company and shareholders;

b. Prepare meetings of the Board of Directors, Audit Committee, and General Meeting of Shareholders as requested by the Board of Directors or Audit Committee;

c. Advise on meeting procedures;

d. Attend meetings;

e. Advise on procedures for drafting resolutions of the Board of Directors in accordance with legal regulations;

f. Provide financial information, copies of Board of Directors meeting minutes, and other information to members of the Board of Directors and members of the Audit Committee;

g. Monitor and report to the Board of Directors on the Company's information disclosure activities.

h. Act as a focal point of communication with relevant stakeholders;

i. Maintain confidentiality of information in accordance with laws and the Company's Charter;

j. Other rights and obligations in accordance with law and the Company's Charter.

SECTION VIII

GENERAL DIRECTOR AND OTHER EXECUTIVES

Article 31. Organizational Structure

The management system of the Company must ensure that the management apparatus is accountable to the Board of Directors and is subject to the supervision and direction of the Board of Directors in the daily business operations of the Company. The Company shall have a General Director, Deputy General Directors, a Chief Accountant, and other managerial positions appointed by the Board of Directors. The appointment, dismissal, and removal of the above-mentioned positions must be approved by resolutions or decisions of the Board of Directors.

Article 32. Members of the Board of Management of the Company

1. Members of the Board of Management of the Company include the General Director, Deputy General Directors, and the Chief Accountant.

2. Upon the proposal of the General Director and with the approval of the Board of Directors, the Company is entitled to recruit other members of the Board of Management as necessary, with quantity and quality suitable to the organizational structure and management regulations of the Company as prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Members of the Board of Management must be responsible for supporting the activities and organization of the Company to achieve the set objectives.

3. Salary, remuneration, benefits, and other terms in the labor contract of the General Director shall be decided by the Board of Directors, and contracts with other members of the Board of Management shall be decided by the Board of Directors after consultation with the General Director, except for cases falling under the authority of the General Director.
4. Salaries of members of the Board of Management shall be included in the Company's business expenses in accordance with the law on corporate income tax, shall be separately recorded in the annual financial statements of the Company, and must be reported to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the annual meeting.

Article 33. Appointment, Dismissal, Duties and Powers of the General Director

1. The Board of Directors shall appoint one member of the Board of Directors or another person as the General Director.
2. The General Director is a member of the Board of Management who manages the daily business operations of the Company; is subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors; and is responsible before the Board of Directors and before the law for the implementation of assigned rights and obligations.
3. The term of office of the General Director shall not exceed five (05) years and may be reappointed. The appointment may cease to be effective based on provisions of the labor contract. The General Director must satisfy the standards and conditions prescribed by law, the Company's Charter, and regulations of the Board of Directors. If the term of the incumbent General Director expires and a new General Director has not yet been appointed, the term of the incumbent General Director shall be extended until the time a new General Director is appointed, except where the Board of Directors has a decision otherwise.
4. The General Director shall have the following rights and obligations:

a. Decide on matters relating to the daily business operations of the Company which do not fall under the authority of the Board of Directors;
b. Organize the implementation of resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors;
c. Organize the implementation of the Company's business plans and investment plans;
d. Propose plans for organizational structure and internal management regulations of the Company; propose measures to improve the operations and management of the Company;
e. Appoint, dismiss, and remove managerial positions in the Company, except for positions under the authority of the Board of Directors;
f. Decide on salaries and other benefits for employees of the Company, including managers under the appointment authority of the General Director;
g. Recruit employees;
h. Propose dividend distribution plans or handling of business losses;
i. Manage and decide daily production and business operations of the Company. An activity shall be considered a daily business operation of the Company if such activity does not fall under the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors; represent the Company to sign financial and commercial contracts, organize and manage daily production and business operations of the Company in accordance with best management practices;

j. Decide on investment, purchase, and sale of assets; decide on contracts for purchase, sale, borrowing, lending, commercial, civil, financial contracts, pledge, mortgage, guarantee, secured transactions, indemnities, and other contracts within the authority and/or authorization of the General Meeting of Shareholders and/or the Board of Directors;

k. Be entitled to authorize subordinates and other persons to perform one or several tasks within his/her authority and shall be responsible before the law and before the Board of Directors for such authorization;

l. Perform all other activities in accordance with this Charter, the Company's regulations, resolutions of the Board of Directors, the labor contract of the General Director, and the law.

5. The General Director shall be responsible before the Board of Directors and the General Meeting of Shareholders for the performance of assigned duties and powers and must report to these bodies when required.

6. The Board of Directors may dismiss or remove the General Director when a majority of members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting having voting rights approve (in this case, the vote of a member of the Board of Directors who concurrently holds the position of General Director shall not be counted) and appoint a new General Director as replacement.

SECTION IX

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, THE GENERAL DIRECTOR AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

Article 34. Duty of Care

Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, and other members of the Board of Management have the responsibility to perform their duties, including duties in the capacity as members of sub-committees of the Board of Directors, in an honest and prudent manner for the best interests of the Company.

Article 35. Duty of Loyalty and Avoidance of Conflicts of Interest

1. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, and other members of the Board of Management must disclose related interests in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and relevant legal regulations.

2. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, other managers, and related persons of these members shall only use information obtained by virtue of their positions to serve the interests of the Company.

3. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, and other managers are obliged to notify in writing the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee of transactions between the Company, subsidiaries, and other companies in which the public company holds more than 50% of charter capital with such persons or their related persons in accordance with the law. For the above transactions approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors, the Company must disclose information on such resolutions in accordance with the law on securities information disclosure.

4. Members of the Board of Directors shall not vote on transactions that bring benefits to such member or his/her related persons in accordance with the Law on Enterprises and the Company's Charter.

5. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, other managers, and related persons of these persons shall not use or disclose internal information to others to perform related transactions.
6. Transactions between the Company and one or more members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, other managers, and individuals or organizations related to these persons shall not be invalid in the following cases:

a. For transactions with value below 35% of the total value of assets recorded in the most recent financial statements, important contents of the contract or transaction as well as relationships and interests of members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, and other managers have been reported to the Board of Directors and approved by a majority vote of members of the Board of Directors without related interests;

b. For transactions with value from 35% of the total value of assets recorded in the most recent financial statements or transactions leading to total transaction value arising within 12 months from the date of execution of the first transaction reaching 35% of the total value of assets recorded in the most recent financial statements, important contents of such transactions as well as relationships and interests of members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, and other managers have been disclosed to shareholders and approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders by voting or written opinion collection or other forms as prescribed in this Charter by shareholders without related interests.

Article 36. Liability for Damages and Indemnification

1. Members of the Board of Directors, the General Director, and other members of the Board of Management who violate obligations and responsibilities of honesty and prudence, or fail to fulfill their duties, must be liable for damages caused by their violations.
2. The Company shall indemnify persons who have been, are, or may become a related party in claims, lawsuits, or prosecutions (including civil and administrative cases and not cases where the Company is the plaintiff) if such person has been or is a member of the Board of Directors, a member of the Audit Committee, the General Director, other members of the Board of Management, employees, or authorized representatives of the Company who have performed or are performing duties under authorization of the Company, acting honestly and prudently for the interests of the Company on the basis of compliance with law and without evidence proving that such person has breached his/her responsibilities.
3. Indemnification costs include judgment costs, fines, and actual payable amounts (including attorney fees) when resolving such matters within the scope permitted by law. The Company may purchase insurance for such persons to avoid the above liabilities in accordance with the following:

a. The General Meeting of Shareholders approves the purchase of liability insurance for members of the Board of Directors;

b. The Board of Directors approves the purchase of liability insurance for the General Director, Deputy General Directors, the Chief Accountant, and other members of the Board of Management deemed necessary by the Board of Directors;

c. The General Director decides on the purchase of liability insurance for cases not falling under Points a and b of this Clause.

SECTION X

RIGHT TO INSPECT BOOKS AND RECORDS OF THE COMPANY

Article 37. Right to Inspect Books and Records

1. Ordinary shareholders have the right to inspect books and records as follows:

a. Ordinary shareholders have the right to examine, inspect, and extract information on their name and contact address in the list of voting shareholders; request correction of inaccurate information; examine, inspect, extract, or copy the Company's Charter, minutes of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;

b. Shareholders or groups of shareholders owning from five percent (05%) or more of the total ordinary shares have the right to examine, inspect, extract minutes, resolutions and decisions of the Board of Directors, mid-year and annual financial statements, reports of the Audit Committee, contracts and transactions required to be approved by the Board of Directors, and other documents, except for documents relating to trade secrets and business secrets of the Company;

c. Shareholders exercise the above rights during working hours and at the head office of the Company.

2. In case the authorized representative of a shareholder or group of shareholders requests to inspect books and records, such request must be accompanied by a power of attorney of such shareholder or group of shareholders or a notarized copy thereof.

3. Members of the Board of Directors, members of the Audit Committee, the General Director, and other members of the Board of Management have the right to inspect the shareholder register of the Company, the list of shareholders, books, and other records of the Company for purposes related to their positions, provided that such information must be kept confidential.
